that there is actual demand for new bathing pavillons. New bath houses under way at Seventh avenue can hardly be built fast enough

With the annual convention here this week of the Elks the resort is gay with bunting in colors of purple and white. The parade, one of the features of the Elks' sojourn here, was of more than passing interest this year. Right up in front with the Jersey City delegation was Gov. Edward J. Edwards. The Mariborough Hotel has made many innovations in the service and in the building itself. In fact, the Elks thought so well of it that they made it their headquarters for the Elizabeth delegation. Elizabeth is near enough to Asbury to know all about the place.

BAYHEAD. BAYHEAD, N. J., June 26 .- Yachtamen of high and low degree were on hand to-day and boats of all sizes and descriptions were entered in the initial regatta of the season on the schedule of the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Asso ciation. The first of the 1920 races were sailed over the Bayhead course, and boats from Seaside Park, Mantoloking, Lavalette, Island Heights and other Barnegat Bay points participated in the event. During the morning the sneak box event for women was sailed, and this afternoon a big fleet got under way with the starting gun that started sai ing activities for the men. Bayhead yachtsmen are bent on winning the Barnegat Bay honors again this year, and the local club bonsts some of the fleetest craft in the bay area. Tennis activities are again under the direction of Mayor Robert H. Metcaife, who is completing the tournament schedule for the entire summer.

The yacht club is to be the scene of a revival of the bridge teas which proved At the Metropolitan Hotel there was a luncheon for about 200 women, members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Elks.
